FROM OUR DIOCESAN SPIRITUAL DIRECTOR FR MARK COOPER

A few weeks ago, in our Gospel reading Jesus was commenting on the Old Testament law “An eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth.” His comment is probably one of the most difficult for us to understand and to put into action in our lives.

Matthew 5.43-44 “You have heard that it was said, ‘You shall love your neighbour and hate your enemy.’ But I say to you, Love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you.”

An eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth makes logical sense. There is an element of justice here; what harm you cause me, I will cause you. The payback is equal, no one can call foul. This was especially important in tribal societies where payback was often escalating. You hurt a member of our tribe, we maim a member of yours, you kill one of ours, we kill a few of yours.... There was no end.

To stop this, a justice system of equal retribution was installed. A part of the problem with this was there was no mitigating circumstances. What if the injury was a mistake? It was still an eye for an eye.

The problem with both systems is getting locked into cycles of violence. Even with an eye for an eye family members can still feel that justice wasn't really served, that they want a greater punishment to make up for their personal loss.

These days we talk about trying to break the cycle of violence. It's a great idea, but who breaks it first? Mostly we want it to be the other person. Let me get my last jab in, then let's stop the violence.

Jesus says, if we are to be his disciples, citizens of God's kingdom, then we need to be the ones prepared to break the cycle, to be the ones to turn the other cheek, give our cloak and walk an extra mile.

We might worry that this makes us look weak, a doormat for others to step on, but in reality it takes great personal strength to be willing to say, the violence stops here. That I will genuinely love and pray for those who do me wrong.

When Jesus asks this of us, he isn't a leader cushioned from the effects of others, demanding of us that which he has no intention of doing himself. As we approach Easter we will see Jesus betrayed by a friend, deserted by his companions, arrested, beaten, humiliated, and nailed to the cross.

As he looks down, he doesn't berate those who have left him, or swear revenge on those who are killing him, but he showed compassion for the criminal next to himself and asks forgiveness for those who have no idea what they are really doing.

Following Jesus example is incredibly difficult. We all want our last jab, but if the cycle of violence is to be broken we need to be the ones with the courage to stand up and say “it stops here, with me.”

Greetings to all Cursillistas for 2023

Welcome to the Autumn Edition of the Encourager.

As we write this report we are fast approaching Easter and Easter Celebrations. We remember and reflect upon our Loving Lord and His amazing sacrifice made for us as His children.

1 Peter 2:24 we read: "He himself bore our sins on the tree, so that we might die to sin and live for righteousness; by his wounds we have been healed."

May your Easter be filled with every blessing as we celebrate the Risen Lord.

Cursillo Three Day Weekends

It is wonderful that we can hold two Cursillo weekends this year. Men's 50 and Women's 50 under the Leadership of Ken Iles and Marea Niland and their Teams. Please pray for Ken and Marea and their Teams as they prepare to commence training. See page 10.

In this Encourager, on page 11, you can read ways we need veterans to help in assisting the smooth running of both of the three day weekends.

Please pray about who you might be able to sponsor for the weekend.

Communication

The task of keeping the Cursillo Roll up to date is up to us all. If there are any changes in your Parish that need to be up dated please let your Deanery Leader or Parish Contact know so adjustments can be made and every one can receive all information.

Ultreyas

It is very encouraging to see the attendances at the Ultreyas. A wonderful time to share in fellowship, singing and hospitality. See pages 12 & 13 in this edition for reports and photos.

These have been included on page 8 in this Edition for your information.

The Commissioning Day for M50/W50 will be held on Saturday 6th May at Cardiff commencing at 9:30am for 10am start. Hope to see you there.

Palanca

Please start writing your Palanca early. Leaders and Team Members are listed in this Encourager. Remember how you felt when you received your Palanca.

Enjoy your Encourager. Until we meet again.

De Colores and may all have a Blessed Easter.

Prayer from National Spiritual Advisor

Prayer for March 2023

On Prayer

Luke 6:12 One of those days Jesus went out to a mountainside to pray, and spent the night praying to God.

Merciful Lord, encourage us to spend time with you as your Son did.

The Day Thy Gavest Lord Has Ended - 'As o'er each continent and island, The dawn leads on another day, The voice of prayer is never silent, Nor dies the strain of praise away.'

Remind us Father that we are not alone in our prayer, throughout your creation, at every moment, supplications are being made. They may not know our name or our need, but you do. May we too offer prayers for those who are in need throughout the world.

Matthew 5:44 "But I tell you, love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you,"

Lead us to pray for others as well as ourselves. Teach us your grace as we pray for those who offend us, as we have offended you.

Eph 6:18 "And pray in the Spirit on all occasions with all kinds of prayers and requests. With this in mind, be alert and always keep on praying for all the Lord's people."

Teach us Master to bring everything in our lives to you, the tiny decisions as well as the great, the smallest of requests as well as the weightiest, for all people not just those we know.

James 5:13 "Is anyone among you in trouble? Let them pray. Is anyone happy? Let them sing songs of praise."

Teach us Father that it is not only when we are in distress that we should speak with you, but at all times. Let us offer you thanks and praise as well as requests.

Psalms 141:2 "May my prayer be set before you like incense; may the lifting up of my hands be like the evening sacrifice."

We pray Lord that our supplications and prayers will be pleasing to you, that our words are humble and free from vanity

Mark 11:24" Therefore I tell you, whatever you ask for in prayer, believe that you have received it, and it will be yours.

May we gain the confidence to walk in faith, believing and trusting in your promises.

Mark 9:24 "Immediately the boy's father exclaimed, "I do believe; help me overcome my unbelief!"

When our faith is weak, we pray for the strength of the Holy Spirit

Romans 8:26 "Likewise the Spirit helps us in our weakness. For we do not know what to pray for as we ought, but the Spirit himself intercedes for us with groanings too deep for words".

Almighty Lord, when we cannot find the words to pray, when we are dumb in our wickedness, listen we pray to your Spirit as he speaks for us.

These things we pray in the name of your Son and our Lord, Jesus Christ. Amen

 "Devote yourselves to prayer, being watchful and thankful."

New Secretariat members 2023

Hello, my name is Lorraine Phillips W19 at Lochinvar, table of Elizabeth (I think). I am your new Servant Community person on Secretariat.

I have been married to Lance for 52 years, we have four great kids and six beautiful grandchildren. We worship at St John's Raymond Terrace and we have lived here on and off for 38 years. Lance being in the RAAF we moved backwards and forwards between here, Canberra and Queensland, finally settling in Raymond Terrace in 1997 following Lance's medical discharge from the RAAF.

After finishing EFM course I enrolled at Newcastle Uni to study Theology, I gained my degree in 2015. Life is busy with SRE, Mothers Union, Anglican Women, Cursillo and Chalice Assistant in the parish. I am also on Grandma duty 2 afternoons a week.

In my down time I like to do embroidery and cross stitch, not that I have done much lately; I also love to read and watch TV. I love chocolate, potato chips and my favourite meal is Fillet Mignon.

My Cursillo involvement began with W19 in 1997 followed by being a team member in 4 other weekends and then the great honour of serving our amazing God as LD for W49 and now being on Secretariat.

During all this I know that I have been carried in the arms of our Lord Jesus Christ and nothing is impossible with Him as our guide and protector.

De Colores

Lorraine Phillips

W19

I worship and serve at St John's Raymond Terrace.

I attended my Cursillo weekend in 2015, Table of Naomi (W44A). It was a very special experience for me and I made many wonderful connections, as well as finding a renewed commitment for Christian Living. It was with great excitement that I accepted a role on the Cursillo Team last year, and again this year.

I am the proud mum of two wonderful children, a boy and a girl, who have now mostly grown up (my baby is 18).

I work full-time, and am currently studying toward a Bachelor in Theology. My husband and I always find a way to spend some time outside amongst nature and enjoy God's beautiful creation.

My hobbies include water sports and riding motor bikes. I have moved around extensively throughout my life, from Germany to Perth, then in the Air force all over Australia. However, St. John's feels like my home and I feel very blessed to have finally found not only the supportive community of St. John's, but the wonderful Cursillo movement.

De colores,

Susie Foster

How do you remember? What are your “aids to memory”?

Birthdays can be a particular challenge for me. I find it easier to remember the years when our children were born rather than how old they are. My wife and I would be lost without our wall calendar as we try to record all our appointments and key dates so that we do not forget. While this might seem as just a way that we help remember events – dates important to us – it does raise some issues for me concerning our faith. How do we remember important events and truths? We are very fortunate because we have many aids to help us remember.

My wife and I faced a challenge some years ago concerning the supply of palm crosses for the parish. We used to purchase them through a mission agency as a support for their work, but the supply was discontinued. Our solution? We had to learn how to make our own! And we have continued to do it for our parish.

This takes me back to my question. Are the crosses on “Palm Sunday” just an exercise in remembering a craft or do they have a much more significant purpose?

They are indeed “aids to memory”. We remember (are reminded) how Jesus was welcomed as the fulfilment of the OT promise of a Messiah – the palm branches being a tangible way of giving an honourable greeting. But within days that all changed and Jesus was crucified. The “cross” made from the palms reminds us of what is to come.

Paul, when he was in prison with Timothy, writes to all the “saints in Christ Jesus” who are in Philippi. In this letter, he identifies another “aid to memory” – Jesus’ resurrection. The good news of God in Jesus that is expressed by Paul is “counter-cultural”. Contrary to what was anticipated by the Jewish people, Jesus’ resurrection had declared him to be “Israel’s Messiah”.

The poem (or hymn?) that Paul quotes in this letter is another “aid to memory”. It asks us to re-think what has happened. This is the God who is known most clearly when he abandons his “rights” for the sake of the world. As we make our palm crosses, we are “aided” to more deeply reflect on the words quoted by Paul and give thanks for God’s love again (and again!).

*Therefore God also highly exalted him and gave him the name
that is above every name,
<sup>10</sup> so that at the name of Jesus
every knee should bend,
in heaven and on earth and under the earth, <sup>11</sup> and every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father. (Phil 2.9-11).*

May God richly bless you all this Easter.

ULTREYA'S

Lambton

On Friday, March 17 about twenty people gathered at St. John the Baptist hall at Lambton to enjoy prayerful spirituality and much fellowship. Hearty singing included homage to St. Patrick, as it was his day. The witness speaker was our own Rev. Kate Heath who spoke about her faith journey from a lay perspective - how she was drawn to faith and how motherhood and Scripture teaching offer unique and delightful faith opportunities. Cursillistas came from right across the diocese and we had a notable number of non-Cursillistas from our Lambton parish family - just checking it out. I'm sure the Lambton neighbours were positively disturbed by our night.

Central Coast Ultreya at St Luke's Toukley with Wyong and Lakes

A good team of Cursillistas helped Parish Contact Anne Watt set up and clear away so we were excited to meet from all over the Coast.

With Cate Ewin on the keyboard and Noeline Darcy as Lay Leader, we enjoyed good singing and wonderful witness from speaker Robert Smeallie. Robert was an outstanding witness to the power of prayer over his numerous treatments and surgeries; Rev Brad Lovegrove gave gospel based Spiritual Direction, and his participation helped make our Ultreya most enjoyable and thought provoking. His striped hammock made a beautiful rainbow placed over the lectern.

Agreed; we look forward to the next Ultreya on the Coast at All Saints, The Entrance, with Bateau Bay, on Saturday 15th April, for BYO lunch at 12 o'clock and 1pm Ultreya start.

ULTREYA'S

Belmont Ultreya

Lake Macquarie Deanery held their first Ultreya on Friday 24th February. It was well supported with about thirty guests in attendance. Cursillistas came from Newcastle and Central Coast deaneries and it was a wonderful night of fellowship, renewing old friendships. The evening was well directed by Pam MacAskill in her role as Lay Director, Robyn Ashley-Brown provided beautiful music to assist our singing. However, perhaps the highlight of the night was the inspirational Witness Talk given by Glenda Grono. Glenda has experienced considerable pain in recent months but through all these difficulties, has never doubted the support and love of our gracious Lord. Rev. Alison Wooden and Father Peter Tinney gave the Spiritual Responses. An enjoyable night was had by all. The next Lake Macquarie Ultreya will be at Glenrock Anglican, Hexham Street, Kahibah on Sunday 28th May at 1.30 for 2pm. We so much look forward to seeing you.

God Bless,

Brian Taylor
